

ARMERIA

'PRETTY PETITE'

LONG FLOWERING

Armeria 'Pretty Petite' is a low-maintenance and easy to grow plant sure to delight with its stunning flower heads. The tight, tufted mound of ornamental, grass-like foliage is adorned with long flowering masses of globe-shaped soft pink flowers. 'Pretty Petite' is very dry tolerant once established and will reward gardeners with flowers throughout spring.

FEATURES

- Forms a tight, tufted mound of ornamental, grass-like foliage for year round interest
- Long flowering perennial topped with masses of globe shaped, soft pink flowers through much of the year with the main flush in spring
- Low maintenance and easy to grow
- Dry tolerant once established

USES

- Cut flower gardens, rockeries and containers
- Small gardens with fast growth results for new gardens
- Mixed borders, edging and suitable for coastal regions

CARE

Grows well in full sun in most soil types given good drainage. No pruning required although trimming off spent flowers will encourage further flushes. An application of slow release fertiliser in spring is recommended. Low watering requirements withstanding some dryness but should be watered regularly during extended periods of heat.

ORIGIN: Victoria, Australia // SPECIES: Armeria maritima // PROTECTION STATUS: PBR Protected

FULL SUN

PART SHADE

FROST HARDY

DRY TOLERANT

HEIGHT 15CM
SPREAD 40CM